STRATEGY OVERVIEW

Schafer Cullen is a value investing firm, employing a price discipline focus with a long-term time horizon across all of its strategies. Value investing has significantly outperformed the market over the long-term, benefitting from the main drivers of equity market returns: valuation multiple expansion, earnings growth and strong dividend yields, while protecting capital in down markets.

The High Dividend Value Equity strategy, launched in 1994, invests in large capitalization equities with low Price/Earnings and Price/Book ratios, along with High Dividend Yields; this disciplined value approach aims to deliver strong long-term capital appreciation and above-average income with significantly less volatility. The strategy's superior, risk-adjusted returns over full market cycles are driven by its strong upmarket capture and significant down-market protection. The strategy's foundation is built on three primary investment disciplines, which have remained consistent since the strategy's inception:

- ▶ LOW P/E DISCIPLINE
- ▶ HIGH DIVIDEND YIELDS
- ▶ STRONG DIVIDEND GROWTH

First, the strategy invests in equities that trade at a significant discount to the market, which provides multiple expansion potential, while also protecting capital in down markets. Second, each investment in the portfolio offers a dividend yield of a least 3% at initiation. Dividends have contributed nearly 40% to total equity returns over the last 70 years and provide meaningful downside protection. Lastly, the strategy seeks to invest in companies that consistently grow their dividends - an indication that the underlying business is attractive and growing. The portfolio is concentrated, investing in 30 - 40 stocks, but also diversified with exposure to each sector of the market.

INVESTMENT DECISION PROCESS

INITIAL SCREEN:

Bottom up approach that begins with a universe of 2,000+ stocks with a market capitalization generally greater than $5 billion.

SCREEN FOR VALUE:

- Seek out companies with price-to-earnings (P/E) ratios less than the S&P 500 with long-term earnings growth in the mid-to-high single digits or higher annually
- Look for companies with high dividend yields, strong dividend growth potential and moderate payout ratios

FUNDAMENTAL RESEARCH:

- Quantitative and qualitative analysis focused on earnings growth drivers, balance sheet strength, cash flow consistency and improving returns
- Market leaders and businesses with sustainable competitive advantages
- Identify catalysts that unlock shareholder value or drive earnings growth
- Meetings and discussions with management, industry analysts, suppliers and customers
- Management committed to disciplined capital allocation and sustaining dividend payouts

PORTFOLIO CONSTRUCTION:

- Diversification across approximately 30-40 stocks
- Diversification across approximately 15-20 industries
- No more than 30% invested in any one sector at cost
- No more than 15% invested in any one industry at cost
- No more than 5% invested in any one stock at cost
- Up to 25% of the portfolio may be invested in ADRs

SELL DISCIPLINE:

- Price to earnings multiple not justified by earnings growth rate
- Deteriorating fundamentals or negative change in operating environment
- Dividend cuts, negative change in dividend policy or significant decline in yield due to price appreciation

The Goal of the High Dividend Strategy:

To participate in the long-term upside potential of equities while simultaneously providing a substantial measure of downside protection. The following capture ratio table demonstrates our success in executing this strategy.

From the strategy's inception in January 1994 through December 31, 2018, of the 300 monthly returns for the S&P 500, 101 were negative. The High Dividend Value strategy outperformed in 76 out of these 101 down months, and of these 76 months of outperformance of the S&P 500, the strategy had a positive return in 18 months.

DISCLOSURE:

Schafer Cullen Capital Management, Inc. (SCCM) is an independent investment advisor registered under the Investment Advisers Act of 1940. Cullen Capital Management, LLC (CCM) and Cullen Funds Trust (CFT) are affiliates of SCCM. The use of the term "firm" in describing total assets refers to SCCM and CCM only.

The primary benchmarks used for comparison purposes are the total return indices for the S&P 500 Index and the Russell 1000 Value Index. The S&P 500 Index is the commonly used measure of the broad U.S. stock market and includes both discretionary and non-discretionary assets. The Russell 1000 Value Index measures the performance of large-cap U.S. value stocks.

Returns are expressed in U.S. dollars. Gross of fee performance is calculated gross of management fees and custodian fees and net of transaction costs. Net of fee performance is calculated net of actual management fees and transaction costs but gross of custodian fees. Past performance does not guarantee future results. Individual account performance will not match the composite and will depend upon various factors including market condition at the time of investment. Returns reflect the reinvestment of dividends and other earnings. It should not be assumed that recommendations made in the future will be as profitable or surpass the historical performance of the securities in the composite.
